'CRIME IS FED BY POLITICS' SAYS JUDGE

Arlington Lions Club Hears Barrister Tell of 'Crook' County

Judge Jonas of Chicago, in speaking before the Arlington Heights Lions Club Monday night, said a lot of things about crime in this part of the country, blaming a large part of it onto politics, that opened the eyes of his hearers.

It was evident from the first that Judge Jonas had an important message; that he spoke from a background of wide experience and study, that he was seriously in earnest; and that he had the courage not only to voice his convictions, but also supplement his expressed convictions by positive efforts toward reform. He pictured our country, and particularly Illinois and Chicago and its environs, as about the worst crime ridden territory in the world with conditions growing worse rather than better. The cause, he saw in the attitude of the average citizen toward crime, viz; that it is none of the individual citizen's concern—that it is the business of the courts and the police departments.

He presented statistics compiled by the National Crime Commission to illustrate the extent and cost of crime. These figures show that we have yearly in this country 22,000 murders, 3,000 kidnappings, 50,000 robberies, 5,000 cases of arson, 10,000 assaults and 40,000 burglaries. In comparison, London with 9,000,000 people had last year 17 murders, only two of which went unpunished. France, with 50,000,000 people had last year only 221 robberies with a gun, but Cleveland, Ohio, with only 1,000,000 people had 120 robberies. The estimated cost of such crime in the United States is $13,000,000,000 per year. Narcotics stand as one of the most marked contributory factors toward major crimes. The United States spends $2,000,000,000 per year to suppress the traffic in narcotics. This is five times the cost of constructing the Panama Canal and three times the annual expenses of educating our youth in organized schools.

Some factors accounting for the increase in crime are: The automobile, the surfaced highways making possible a quick "get away" and transporting the criminal far from the scene of the crime; poorly guarded banks, inefficiently organized systems of communication; unpunished youthful crimes; and an ostentatious display of wealth on the part of some citizens.

Judge Jonas believes that one of the best barometers of crime is to be found in the cost of insurance. These rates are based upon statistics. Comparison of rates on theft insurance on cars in Chicago and in Milwaukee shows that on a Chrysler car in Chicago the rate is $9.18 as against $6 in Milwaukee. On a Ford car it is 95c in Milwaukee and $1.18 in Chicago.

An examination of our parole system in Illinois shows that the Parole Board, a dozen men, know little or no knowledge of the case, and holding their job through political appointment, can turn loose upon the state the most dangerous criminals after only eleven months has been served. Fifty-seven habitual criminals were released upon Chicago in three months.

Judge Jonas believes fully in probationary sentence for youthful offenders for, says he, "No one ever enters a penal institution as a prisoner and comes out a better man than he was when he entered."

The explanation of the whole crime wave is to be found in the bargain between politics and crime. Crime can only thrive and succeed when it is protected. Politics protects crime in return for contributions and votes. Crime lives because somewhere there is a so-called "respectable citizen" who is protecting and aiding the criminal in return for profits in some form. The question is: Divorce all law enforcing agencies from politics. Make judges appointive for life and free from all threat of removal. Make a sentence once pronounced by a judge or a jury above appeal by a political parole board.

In announcing the program President Jasper explained that it was through the assistance of Mr. Rex Volz that we had been able to secure the speaker of the evening and he therefore conceded to Mr. Volz the privilege of introducing the speaker. Mr. Volz explained that President Jasper had asked to have a real speaker, non-political, with a worthwhile message, and that, through the personal acquaintance and friendship of Commissioner Wm. Busse of the Mt. Prospect Lions' club, Judge Jonas had been prevailed upon to accept the invitation to speak to the Arlington Heights club. He then asked permission to reverse the usual order and introduce the audience

7 Auto Deaths In Palatine During Year

Saturday night's crash in which Ernest S. Rabb, 27, of Chicago was killed caused the seventh auto accident death in Palatine this year, but Mr. Rabb was the first victim not to be a local citizen.

J. Frank Smith, 60, was the year's first victim. He was killed April 8 on Chicago avenue just east of Quentin road while walking along the unlighted street with his back to oncoming traffic.

Three persons, John Gainer, 71, his wife, Mrs. Emma Gainer, 70, and their daughter, Mrs. Elsie Fosket, 35, were killed Memorial day at Benton street and the Northwest highway when their car was struck by another.

August 7 Herman Berlin, 33, and Mrs. Mata Haemker Hildebrandt, 31, were killed at Colfax place and the Northwest highway when the auto in which they were riding was hit by another car.

Persons injured in these and other accidents in and near Palatine during 1934 total 17.

SCOUT CABIN IN ELK GROVE IS DEDICATED

Structure Built by Older Boys Patrol of Troop 2

Approximately 120 parents and guests of Troop 2 of Park Ridge Community church, attended the dedication ceremony of the troop's cabin on the George A. Scharringhausen farm adjoining the Elk Grove forest preserve Saturday.

The cabin has been under construction for more than a year. Most of the work was done by the older scouts in the Troop who organized themselves into the Pioneer patrol.

H. E. Jensen, chairman of Troop 2's committee, was presented to the group by Scoutmaster Harry Koelling, and welcomed the Scouts and guests in behalf of the troop. District Commissioner J. P. Fritz commended the troop upon the completion of the project, and stated that nothing of this kind had been undertaken and completed in recent years by any of the troops in the Northwest Suburban area.

Scoutmaster Koelling explained the objective of the Pioneer patrol of Troop 2. He pointed out the purpose of the cabin in accomplishing this objective. The requirements for membership in the Pioneer patrol are, a rank of Star Scout or higher, successful leadership for at least a period of six months, as apparent desire to advance in Scouting, and a Scout-like example for younger Scouts.

The members of this patrol at present are Junior Assistant Scoutmaster, Arthur W. Nelson, Jr., Walter Kuhn, senior patrol leader, Thomas Schuetzke, patrol leader, Leverett Jenks, assistant patrol leader, James Abernathy, Robert Stewart, Ted Clark, Dick McQueen, George Walwitz and Carl Dragstedt.

Members of the troop committee whose co-operation and help has made possible Camp Nelson, are G. A. Scharringhausen, Geo. W. Hand, H. C. Kalwitz, Edw. Fritz, Sr., Jos. Fritz, J. L. Abernathy, Nelson Barnett, C. A. Jenks, F. E. Honck, L. E. White, W. H. Colman, A. W. Nelson, H. E. Jensen, H. H. Parks, R. T. Schuetzke and Clifford C. Gregg.

to the speaker. In a few well chosen words he paid tribute to the Lions club as an organization of business and professional men interested in the civic and social welfare of the community; assuring the speaker that the men of the Club were the type of citizens from whom he could expect intelligent co-operation in an effort against crime. He congratulated the Club on their good fortune in securing a speaker such as Judge Jonas to present such an important message.

Miss Margaret Greenberg furnished the special music. She is an accomplished whistler. She gave two selections, "The American Patrol March," and "Sing, Sing, Birds on the Wing." Club members were agreeably surprised to find that we had such a capable whistler in one of our local young women.

The club voted to hold their annual Thanksgiving banquet on November 22.

Full details of the program will be given later. Anyone who has ever attended the Thanksgiving program of the Arlington Heights Lions club knows that it will be a real feature night.

YOUNG FATHER DEAD IN CRASH NEAR PALATINE

Jury Censures Other Driver For Not Using Care

Not keeping to the outside lane, and cutting over the center line on a curve resulted Saturday night in the death of a 27-year old father, while driving homeward with his wife and 9-months old baby. Five persons in the other car involved were injured. The accident occurred about 11 o'clock, just east of Palatine where the Northwest highway curves northward away from the railroad tracks.

The man killed was Ernest S. Rabb, 4246 North Francisco street, Chicago, who was a telephone installer. The family was returning from a week's vacation in Minnesota.

The other car was driven by Alfred H. Lenox, 23 years old, of 157 North Lockwood avenue, Chicago. With him were Walter Bornman, 49, of 4835 Parker avenue, Chicago, and Mrs. Anna Bornman, 49, and Walter Keisker, 41, and Mrs. Clara Keisker, 32, of 5425 Lexington street, Chicago.

The driver and two women were knocked unconscious in the crash, while all members of the party suffered cuts and bruises. They were taken to the Community hospital for treatment, and the two women remained there overnight. Mr. Lenox was held in custody by the Palatine police on a manslaughter warrant signed by Mrs. Rabb. He was released on bond Sunday morning.

An inquest Monday afternoon returned a verdict of accidental death, adding that Mr. Lenox "did not exercise proper caution and care, but we do not believe said act to be criminal." A hearing on the manslaughter charge will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning before Justice E. P. Steinbrink in Palatine.

The inquest was conducted by Louis J. Nadherny, deputy coroner. Members of the jury were Frank Hamann, Emil Bartels, William Blume, Henry C. Schroeder, Charles Henning, and John Kitson, all of Palatine.

Officer Charles G. Folz of the Palatine police testified that marks on the pavement showed Mr. Lenox's car to have traveled on or over the center line for 60 feet.

Palatine Masonic Lodge to Observe Its 75th Anniversary

Palatine Masonic Lodge, No. 314 A. F. and A. M. will celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of their lodge constitution on Nov. 6, 1934, at 8:15 p. m. An honorary membership will be conferred upon R. Wor. Bro. Paul A. Pabst, the district deputy grand master.

Older lodge members recall the fiftieth anniversary celebration held October 30, 1909, three years after the Masonic hall was built. Charles S. Cutting and C. DeWitt Taylor were speakers of the evening. About 200 members attended the banquet that night, twenty-five years ago.

The Palatine masons have been in existence since before the Civil war.

On February 1, 1859, seven master masons organized the lodge at the home of Lucius Hall in Palatine. For many years meetings were held in the upper story of the school building, now the Home Bakery building. In 1905 the Palatine lodge association was organized and the present hall constructed.

"ARE GOING TO PLACE US IN A NEW COUNTY"—SAYS AN EVANSTONIAN

Plans to ask the next legislature to form a new Illinois county of eleven suburban townships are being outlined at a public meeting Thursday night in the North Shore hotel in Evanston.

The proposed county would include the townships of Evanston, New Trier, Maine, Barrington, Elk Grove, Hanover, Niles, Northfield, Palatine, Schaumburg, and Wheeling. It would be 350 square miles in area, have 155,600 people, and would comprise real estate with a tax valuation of $600,000,000.

William Lister, Evanston corporation counsel, said such a county would be able to keep out liquor and racketeering, eliminate outside police interference in legal cases, reduce taxes, increase real estate valuations, and gain home rule.

Vote For The Home Men

Whether or not the average voter is "for" or "against" the New Deal, he should not allow his like or dislike for the Rooseveltian policies to influence his vote next Tuesday when he is putting the crosses in the little squares near the bottom of the ticket.

Northwest Cook county has had the privilege of the past four years of having double representation upon the county board. We have had two men, one a Democrat and one a Republican, to look after our interests. Both men are high in the councils of their respective parties, each doing his bit for the welfare of his home district. The same two men can again be elected.

WILLIAM BUSSE

Mr. William Busse has given over thirty years of loyal service to Democrats and Republicans of this section of Cook county. More than once he has received the largest vote of any candidate for county commissioner. He stands for his convictions without arousing antagonism and the democratic commissioners admit he is a valuable member of the board. Even in the days of bitter political battles his opponents have never been able to "hang" anything on Bill Busse. Mr. Busse's loyal service should be recognized at the polls by Democrats and Republicans alike.

George A. Miller, a running mate of Mr. Busse, is not very well known in this section of the county, but he has shown that he is made of the same "goods" as "our Bill," and should not be overlooked.

HOMER J. BYRD

Homer J. Byrd's popularity during the past 20 years that he has been a resident of Northwest Cook County, has probably grown faster than any other man. He has shown leadership ability. His appointment four years ago to the position of chairman of the important road and bridge committee was a recognition of those qualities on the part of the members of the county board.

He has received recognition in many other ways throughout Cook county and even the state of Illinois. Primarily Mr. Byrd is a party man, but he is just as ready to oppose unfair acts in his own party as he is to champion any cause that is worthy of recognition.

He was an early champion of home rule for the country towns. The Cook county suburbs need such men as Mr. Byrd to continue in public office and in the councils of the Democratic party to fight against the encroachment of Chicago interests. It behooves the Republicans and Democrats alike in

Big Sale of Meats at Krause's Cash Market In Anniversary Sale

There have been many sales in Arlington Heights, but probably none in the line of food stuffs the equal of the anniversary sale at the Krause Cash Market which starts today and continues one week.

An entire page in this issue was needed to advertise the bargains that Mr. Krause is offering during this sale. Chicago wholesalers are sending some of their finest products for this event and the public should remember that Krause's meats are always prime products and it holds true for this sale.

BE CAREFUL WHEN VOTING FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

The Herald has been asked to correct a report that has been circulated to the effect that a voter should vote for only one county commissioner is thereby giving that candidate five votes. This is not true.

It is impossible for any County Commissioner to receive more than one vote on a single ballot. In the event you wish to vote STRAIGHT Republican or Democrat and wish to give a vote to one or more county commissioner candidates on the opposite ticket, it is necessary, besides the (X) at the top, to place an (X) before the names of the FIVE commissioners you wish. If you fail to do so, ONLY the names marked on the opposite ticket will receive a vote.

Northwest Cook county to re-elect Mr. Byrd.

NOBLE J. PUFFER

Mr. Puffer's work as assistant county superintendent of schools so many years, brought him in direct contact with the rural schools of the county and their problems. With an educational background that fits him for the position, he has added experience in rural school work in this county. He is a practical school man as well as a trained executive.

Hundreds and thousands of the school boys and girls of the past few years know him personally, which acquaintances also extends to school directors, members of boards of education and to the fathers and mothers interested in the school work of their various communities. Mr. Puffer has had no time to wage an active campaign for himself, but has received hundreds of pledges of support, all unsolicited from these people who know him well—people of his own community.

Naturally the Democrats will support Mr. Puffer, but as a "home boy" and as a matter of pride on the part of all voters, Mr. Puffer should receive the united support of Democrats and Republicans of Northwestern Cook county.

O. S. JOHNSON

If relief is going to come to the tax payer in permanent form, it must come through the state legislature. The suburban towns of Cook county who are looking for their liberation from the dictates of Chicago, need all the support possible in the next state legislature.

O. S. Johnson of Mt. Prospect who is the Democratic nominee for member of the legislature is first of all a good fighter, as his neighbors in his home town will attest. He is naturally a champion of the people. He favors 1½ tax limitation and we know that he will be ready to go on the floor of that legislature and fight for home rule for the suburbs of Cook county.

As a home man, as an independent man, as a champion of home rule, Mr. Johnson deserves the vote of the Northwest towns, irrespective of party.

SPECIAL PROPOSITION

This paper as do also the leaders in both the Republican and Democratic parties, favors the two propositions. If taxation is to be kept down, both must be passed. A change in taxing laws and permanent relief to the property owner requires a new constitution. Unless the relief bond issue is authorized, grave consequences will result. Vote "YES" on both propositions, one on the large ballot and the other on a small ballot.

Ask Payments for Streets Taken As State Highways

The Suburban Area and County Towns association of Cook county has determined to work for the payment by the state of a refund to every city and village, for the paying of any streets taken over as a state highway, after the same have been paved by the municipality.

During the past few years the state highway department has taken over many streets within cities and villages of Cook county, and designated them as state highways. When this is done, the state then assumes primary jurisdiction over the street.

Although the state has paid a portion of the cost of paving in some cases, the highway department has often taken over a street shortly after it was paved entirely at the expense of the local residents. The department is authorized to make a refund to the municipality under these circumstances, and it has done so in many cases down state.

The association asks that such refunds be made in every instance where a street paved by a city or village has been taken over as a state highway. Where paving was laid by special assessments, this would mean a refund to the owners of the property who paid such special assessments; and any expense which had been paid by the city or village out of its general fund would be repaid to the municipality.

SCHOOL WORK IS CRITICISED BY EDUCATORS

Teachers Hear Discussions by Leaders in Profession

The annual meeting of the Lake Shore division of Illinois teachers held Monday at Evanston township high school, gave evidence of progressive forces at work in the field of education. Prominent speakers of national and international reputation made biting criticisms of educational practices and theories. They accompanied these with vigorous recommendations for reform of procedure and redirection of effort. Presentation of stimulating ideas clothed in brilliant use of the English language, made this the outstanding meeting in the history of this branch of the State Teachers' association.

Prof. John Guy Fowlkes of the University of Wisconsin, spoke first on the morning program. He unequivocally recommended greater emphasis on teacher-education in subject to be taught, less emphasis upon courses in methods of teaching. He agreed with many critics of education that too many people in the educational world had been attempting to get by on a smattering of pseudo-technical terms rather than concentrating on real teaching. One of his ideas most challenging to teachers was that they must become truly professional-minded, regarding teaching as a life work. He pointed to definite progress along these lines in the departments of education in universities.

The second speaker of the morning was Dr. Stephen Leacock, professor of English at McGill university, Toronto, Canada. Known on both sides of the Atlantic as a humorist, he fully justified his reputation. The charm of his speech and the gems of his wit gave his audience rare entertainment.

Beneath that polished surface was an excellent analysis of the great difficulty of education—that of retaining the native interest of a student while persuading him to study important but difficult material. Dr. Leacock made perfectly clear the fact that many schools err on the one side of requiring too much work which is deadening to the spirit, while others go to the opposite extreme and allow so much leeway that the individual never forms habits of industry. His recommendation was for proper balance between the two.

In the afternoon William Mathew Lewis, president of Lafayette college of Easton, Pa., concluded the general program. He talked of the aims of education as they should be, in contrast with those aims apparent through some educational procedures today. Especially appropriate was his reference to the student who "gets this course off" and "that course off" until at the end of his college career he has removed everything; whereupon the faculty covers him with a sheepskin. President Lewis declared that education must come to be an introduction to a process of learning, a process which must be used throughout life.

Special musical features included a children's chorus from the City of Schools, numbers played on the flute by Steve Clark who has won national recognition in that field of music, Miss Lulu Kilpatrick of Cicero led in the community singing.

Arlington Heights Men Captured in Robbery Get 1-Year Sentences

Three Arlington Heights men caught in the act of stealing auto accessories from a service station at Cumberland September 8, received 1-year sentences to the house of correction and the fourth, an older man, received a penitentiary sentence of 1 year to life from Judge Sullivan October 10.

Sentences in the house of correction were given to John Greschner, 26, Herman J. Lewis, 24, and Harry Osleger, 24. The prison sentence was given Louis Bozga, 39. Greschner was wounded by Des Plaines police at the time of the robbery when he attempted to flee. He had been in custody three previous times. The men confessed to several other crimes.

Albert Sauer, 72 Years, Long Grove Resident, is Dead; Funeral Sat'day

Mr. Albert Sauer, 72 years old, who was a resident of Long Grove all of his life, passed away Wednesday morning after an illness of three years. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at the Long Grove Evangelical church at two o'clock.

Mr. Sauer was very well known and greatly admired. For many years he conducted the store at Long Grove.

Local Troops May Receive Scout Award

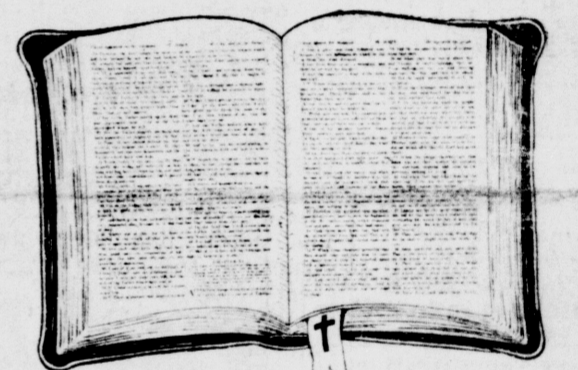

Twenty troops, Seascout "Ships" and Cub Packs of the Northwest Suburban Boy Scout council will earn the coveted 1934 Ten Year Program award of the Boy Scouts of America estimates C. O. Nimtz, scout executive. A medalion will be made available to these troops.

The Ten Year Program, as established by the Boy Scouts of America at the beginning of 1933, is described as a challenge to every Boy Scout troop in the nation to maintain a high-quality, year-round program, so that the interests of its members will be retained for at least a 4-year period.

The Award medalion is designed to be displayed on the flagstaff of the colors of the troops which earn it. It is a golden and blue enamel metal shield shaped to fit on the flagstaff.

To earn the emblem a Scout Troop must carry on an exceptional program throughout the year and maintain high standards in relation to attendance, membership, camping, hiking, civic service, health and others of the numerous activities of the Scout Program. Mr. Nimtz also announced that the following troops are among the 11 who have thus far earned the 1934 award: Troop 5, Arlington Heights; Troop 23, Mt. Prospect; and Troop 15, Niles Center.

Among the seven troops whose charters expire in the remaining months of 1934 who are eligible for this award Mr. Nimtz lists Troop 9, Palatine; Troop 16, Wheeling; Troop 26, Niles Center; and Troop 31, Niles Center.

The "Open Bible," the 400th Anniversary of which is being observed by the Lutheran Churches thruout the U. S.

Bible Anniversary Service by Arlington Heights Lutherans

Believing that the subject of the open Bible cannot be adequately presented in one service the Lutherans of Arlington Heights have arranged a series of five evening services during the week of November 5. Well known pulpits and actors will preach special sermons to the various age and sex groups on the blessings that have come to them from the open Bible. These services will all begin at 7:30 p. m. Following is the program of services arranged by the local committee:

Monday, November 5, a home or family service will be held showing the value of the Bible in the shaping of a Christian home. This service will be in German. Pastor Lehmann of Libertyville will preach on "The Open Bible and the Christian Home." The children's chorus will sing.

Tuesday, November 6, an English service will be held showing especially for the men of the church. The Rev. Geo. Luecke of Norwood Park, has a message for Christian manhood on the subject: "The Open Bible and Christian Manhood." The male chorus will sing.

Wednesday, November 7, the ladies of the church will assemble to hear the message of the Bible for Christian womanhood. This will be a German service. Pastor J. E. A. Mueller of Mt. Prospect will preach the sermon. The mixed chorus will offer an anthem.

Thursday, November 8, all the confirmed youth of St. Peter's will gather in a body for their special anniversary service. This will be a worship in English. Pastor Kretzmann will preach to them on the subject: "The Open Bible and Christian Youth." The Junior chorus will sing.

Friday, November 9, the celebration will be concluded with a service for all the children of the church in English. The Rev. Paul Gerth of Prairie View will bring the Bible message at this occasion. A highly trained children's chorus of Norwood Park under the direction of Mr. A. Lachleben, will sing a special anniversary hymn.

All offerings lifted in these services will be credited to the synodical budget of St. Peter's church. None of these services are restricted to the particular group, which sponsors them, but all members of the church and their friends are invited to attend every service.

TWENTY - ONE CONGREGATIONS PARTICIPATING

Meetings Sunday at Des Plaines, Crystal Lake and Arlington

5 CONGREGATIONS AT ST. PETERS CHURCH

Sunday, November 4, is a red letter day for the Lutheran people of the northwest suburbs. On that day twenty-one congregations comprising a membership of over 5,000 are assembling at three localities for religious exercises in commemoration of the 400th anniversary of Martin Luther's Bible translation. In this impressive manner they desire to express their appreciation of the Protestant Bible, which Luther opened to the world in 1534 when he translated it into the language of his people. "The Lutheran Church" states Pastor Fricke of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, "has always stood for an open Bible. An open Bible means much. It is an indispensable factor in our American principle of religious freedom. An open Bible means the right of every individual to formulate his religious convictions without coercion by civil or religious authorities. The open Bible has provided the incentive for all forces of uplift and progress, and all the high achievements of our modern civilization may be traced back to the spiritual power released by this open source book of religion. It is admitted by competent thinkers on the subject that Luther's Bible translation has given the impetus or served as the model for all subsequent Protestant translations."

Hold Three Services

To accommodate properly the great throngs expected for this anniversary celebration, three rally services will be held simultaneously at three different places.

The Lutheran parishes of Cary, Barrington, Crystal Lake, Menomonee, and Huntley, will worship in the church and school of the Immanuel Lutheran congregation at Crystal Lake, Rev. G. A. Gehrs, pastor. The German rally service is at 2 p. m., with an anniversary address by the Rev. H. Gade of Dundee, Ill. At 7:30 p. m. an English service will be held in which the Rev. W. Martin Rupprecht will preach. Loud speakers will be installed in the adjacent parish hall to accommodate the overflow audience.

The rally service at Arlington Heights, is sponsored by the congregations of Palatine, Arlington Heights, Elk Grove, Mt. Prospect and Libertyville. Two separate services have been arranged, a German service at 2:15 p. m., and an English service at 3:30 p. m. Pastor Karl Buenger of Kenosha, Wis., will preach the German sermon, and Pastor Herbert Kohn of Nazareth congregation, Chicago, will bring the English anniversary message. Provision has been made to care for an overflow audience in the large parish hall of St. Peter's church. An attractive anniversary folder with the complete order of service will be given to all worshippers. Before the sermon, the translating of the Bible and its distribution to the world will be symbolized in an impressive manner.

Immanuel congregation of Des Plaines will be the host for nine other congregations of the vicinity. The Lutheran parishes of Des Plaines, Norwood Park, Higgins-Cainfield, Northfield, Milwaukee Avenue, Niles, Park Ridge, Morton Grove and Niles Center, will assemble in the gymnasium of the Maine Township high school, east of Des Plaines for a double rally service at 3 p. m. Pastor Otto Heerwagen of Hinsdale will preach in German and Pastor Wm. Kowert of Elgin, will deliver the English sermon.

Music Featured

Mr. A. Lachleben, in charge of the musical arrangements, reports that noted organists will preside at the organs and three large choruses of children and adults will offer vocal selections composed especially for the occasion.

Observers Notes

You had rather have friends than money.
No doubt you say true, what you mean,
Yet sometimes it seems a bit funny,
The way you are walking between."
Of course we know your meaning, is the same so many now hold. In dividing wishes, we're screening. Yet the truth had better be told. Though it may sound a bit funny. The one you can win with money, You may surely depend. No loyal friend,
No more than brass is pure gold.

Yes, that is more truth than poetry. Those who come to you as friends when you seem to be on the high tide of prosperity are no friends at all. A true friend values you for what you are, not for what you possess.

These words may seem like time worn platitudes, yet many had been saved from failure if they had heeded their truth in time. "Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of this world," often is misquoted, seldom understood.

Speed, speed, that is the cry, whether here on the earth, or up in the sky. A railway train over ran all previous time from coast to coast. Aviators, through the air have made greater time than all predecessors; an autoist at O dear, I forget how many miles an hour, from coast to coast, stands at the head of the list.

Whizz, how we hustle over the line At break neck heat;
Today a little boy of mine, When called to lunch began to whine,
"I've no time to eat."

The children rush about their play, Grown ups at work;
Till germs of rush and hurry lay, To hurried leaps along the way;
No man can shirk.

Though hurry proves a weaker mind,
Still on the race,
Each striving to out do his kind, And leave all others far behind;
Doubles his pace,

The very walls and fences spin In our made quest;
O let us all anew begin
And try some nobler way to win Wisdom and rest.

Did you hear Sir Robin gloating these bright mornings, after the showers had sent great fat angle worms curving and wriggling over the ground? Not a murmur from him about overproduction; not a harsh note from him, but rather a trilling song of thanksgiving after every fat worm he devoured, brave old bird.

How much we owe to the bright little surprises that break the monotony of our hum drum lives. One came to us the other morning when our cheery milk man led his bright newly little son in to call on us. He helps his father, counts, and carries away the empty cans and is though but three years old, a real helper in the milk delivery. Too often people say so many Meyers can't keep track of them. Here is one bright young son of the house of Meyer, will make a man you will be glad to say you know.

Are we helping to pay the bill for that rather over wrought sheet of propaganda left on our door step the other night, and did our home printer have the job? Further, listen, brother, it will not be my party or your party we vote to join. It must be that party which represents the people as a whole, who vote for right as God leads them to see the light.

Among the visitors coming to attend the Fair this month, was a nephew of the Crisler-Haynes line, Dr. Benjamin Hubert Haynes, for many years a practitioner. Busy?

O yes, yet in his old droll way he said couldn't make his stay longer for fear his patients would find out they could get along without him. O no, Doctor Ben, we need our doctors to give the undertakers work. That's a sorry joke, I'll take it back with apologies.

As to election, when we hear the campaign speakers of both parties out for office, we just feel thankful there are so many honest worthy men, so earnestly seeking to serve the people (if they mean and are all they say) so we'll vote for as many of them as we possibly can, and hope they will be elected.

Since weather is always a first topic we dare to mention our first frost this autumn came October 14, not a freeze. Since that date another equally light, the morning glories still wave their long pre-cents of blossoms, yet tomato vines and corn are withered, and so 'tis autumn.

A day of prayer, "Ye ought always to pray and not faint," we read in the words of our Lord, and Paul said, "Pray without ceasing and give thanks always." Our folks of the W. C. T. U. have set aside October 30 as a day of prayers, meaning the subjects of our petitions. That is well, yet what more can we ask than "Thy Kingdom come Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven." God help us all to make that our sincere prayer that day and all days.

Our kind neighbors, the Rev. Frickie's, though ever busy, find time to remember a shut-in neighbor. The pastor is entering a week of service, the great anniversary of the 400th since the translation of the Lutheran Bible. Mrs. Frickie, a time helmate in all the church work, is one of the kindest of good neighbors, an ever busy home maker and ever zealous in good works.

There are so many beautiful things spread all about us why should we need to go to the worlds fair. Neighbor Clark's garden is a flower show of color, equal to anything you see at the Century of Progress and no charge for looking at it.

Our next door neighbor, Mrs. H. F. Ackley, has some of the most beautiful cosmos over six feet tall and covered with great white, crimson and rose colored flowers. Mrs. Moehling's garden, too, is a marvel of well kept blossoms. Mrs. Laeske's four o'clocks and out here in the garden the morning glories "bright daughters of the dawn" wave their plumes of flowers in defiance of old jack frost.

Flowers this glorious October morn are food for thought. Thought is my theme and some may say my hobby. How we train our children in school and college to store their minds with knowledge, yet do we emphasize the greater part of education is to draw out rather than to cram in.

To delve deep into the treasure mines of thought; "To think" last night (Sunday night), we heard a sermon given by the Rev. Frederick Knobel of New York, at the Sunday Evening club in Chicago. His subject was "Thought" and the greatest need for us all is to think. In order to gain by thinking we must possess a true moral sense to think and think rightly. To build into the highest, noblest character in this life, we each one need just such impelling, forceful urge in these times of stress and strain.

To think deeply and to ask the Great All Father to drive our thoughts that we may build high ideals and true noble aims; that we may have wisdom in our decisions in all concerning our homes, our town and our nation. We have the promise "If any lack wisdom let him ask of me, and I will give it unto him." Lord teach us to think, and guide us to think aright.

Maker of dreams, it is not such ware, As yours I ask for over the air; To the maker of thought I make appeal. For thoughts that He to man may reveal.

Thoughts to purify, thoughts to bless, To raise life out of sordidness; Thoughts that lift mortals to realize Life is a gift.

Thoughts to waken, thrill and burn, "Till all our being shall glow and yearn; To reach the limit given to man, To learn and to know in life's short span.

Maker of dreams, pass on, pass on, The webs of your weaving are tattered and gone; The immortal part one time said, "We're the stuff dreams are made of." Dreams we dream.

Some things far greater than poet dreams, Through thought light immortal streams; Thoughts that touch with living fire, And noble acts through ages inspire.

Maker of thought touch this dull brain, With thoughts for the highest human gain; Thoughts to guard the weakest from sin, Thoughts to waken great truths within.

Thoughts that draw into closer touch, With loyal friends I love so much; Where in the needs of mine own I see The crying needs of humanity.

Maker of thought O dip this pen

ALL LUTHERAN CHURCHES TO CELEBRATE

pecially for this anniversary. The entire offering will now into the depleted treasury of the Missouri Synod with which these churches are affiliated.

A majority of the participating churches have also arranged a series of evening services during the week. Special Bible messages will be preached to various age and sex groups, emphasizing the far reaching influence of Luther's Bible translation. (A complete program of the five consecutive evening churches, conducted by the Arlington Heights Lutherans will be found in a contingent column.)

Though these services are sponsored by the Lutherans, Rev. Frickie maintains that the nature and purpose of this Bible anniversary is of interest for all Protestant Christians. He says, "All Protestants whatever their distinctive creeds are indebted to Luther and Luther's Bible for their particular religious heritage. Therefore, we cordially invite our Protestant neighbors to join us in a service of praise to God for his great gift, the open Bible."

Food Gathering of Oysters
The food gathering activities of oysters and other shellfish, working in mass, may alter the physical and chemical properties of the sea around them to a considerable degree, an oceanographic study has shown.

In golden truths, to lighten men; Who walk the path of patience and pain, Without thought of self or selfish gain.

To walk the way the Lord Christ went, The path of self relinquishment; Not ours to ask God to bestow, Knowledge Divine, while here below.

Maker of thought, light we beseech, The way of human knowing to reach; Thought to inspire the human mind, To know all mysteries, ours to find.

Maker of dreams lure me no more, 'Tis "The Maker of Thought" I would implore; "Maker of Thought," this my appeal, Give thought to show all God would reveal.

Elmore Crisler Haynes.

Republican Notes

Friday, November 2, at 8:00 p. m., there will be a meeting of the Young Men's Republican organization in the Vail-Davis building, Arlington Heights, to which all men between the ages of 18 and 36 years are cordially invited. The presence of the committeemen of the various precincts is asked.

The regular meeting of the Young Men's Republican organization which was held last Friday, October 26, at the Republican headquarters, met with some very pleasant surprises. The first surprise was that the membership of the organization has practically doubled in number, compared to the number turned out last week. The second surprise was due to the efforts of the chairman, Elmer E. Sachs, in having none other than William N. Erickson, vice president of the State Young Men's Republican organization address our young men and gave them a very inspirational talk. William N. Erickson, noted for his sterling qualities, and for being a very intelligent, square-jawed young man, is one of the five candidates for County Commissioner on the Republican ticket.

The third pleasant surprise was also due to the efforts of our young chairman, when he introduced Harry H. Porter, Chief Justice of the Municipal Court of the City of Evanston, who has recently been made a member of the Executive Committee of the Young Men's Republican organization. Judge Porter, who is but thirty-four years of age, has made an enviable record in his six years of public service. His talk was indeed, very encouraging to the young men.

It has been the pleasure of Elmer E. Sachs, while a member of the Evanston Police department, to frequently come into personal contact with both Harry H. Porter and William N. Erickson, and he is well in a position to vouch for their honest character. This young men's organization can be proud to have men of their caliber active in the organization.

BETTER GOVERN ASS'N ENDORSES WILLIAM BUSSE

Gives Support to Republican Candidates in Preference Democrats

William Busse, candidate for county commissioner and his associates upon the Republican ticket, are endorsed in a statement issued recently by the Better Government Association of the Chicago area. Only one Democratic candidate won the approval of that association.

The report reads in part as follows: "All Cook County offices are controlled at present by a party through a corrupt county organization. That organization maintains itself in power largely by many useless employees, and by vote frauds. It refuses to take the necessary steps to provide honest elections or to effect real economies. Public opinion forced the Republican Party to nominate for the principal county offices men who are not professional politicians but business and professional men of unusually high character and ability. They have demonstrated their worth by active efforts in the public interest. It seems clear that it is the best public policy to support these candidates in the election November 6."

Busse Asks Some Questions

Numerous meetings were held the past week under the auspices of the Republican organizations in Northwest Cook county. Mr. Busse and other candidates were in attendance and spoke. During his remarks made at Palatine Monday night, Mr. Busse asked some questions of Homer J. Byrd, democratic candidate for re-election. "Mr. Democratic colleague, Homer J. Byrd, with whom I have no personal quarrel," stated Mr. Busse. "Some people say he is a good fellow. That may be so, but is it not time for the people to stop voting for good fellows?"

"Mr. Byrd, chairman of the road and bridge committee, in the Herald last week, asked some questions of the Republicans and I have the right to ask some questions of Mr. Byrd in return. Here they are:

"Why did you recommend to the County Board the purchase of Wisconsin granite crushed stone for county roads at the price of $4.60 a yard, when crushed stone can be had for $2.00 a yard and produced here in Cook county?"

"Why did you vote to give the Allied Construction Co., about $18,000.00 for anticipated profit?"

"Why did you favor paying for road right of way after the road was paved when the property owners had promised to donate the land?"

The Gieseke and Flentje families went to Valparaiso, Ind., last week-end where they attended the Homecoming festivities of Valparaiso university and saw that school defeat Ball State of Indiana 13-31. Fred Gieseke is a sophomore at Valparaiso and Edgar Flentje a junior.

The Laymen's League of The Lutheran Church Has Hallowe'en Party

Maybe it would be nearer the right way to express it, the Lutheran Laymen's league held a Hallowe'en frolic in Lutheran school hall Friday night, October 26. Their friends were let in on the frolic and there were about 75 in all shared the joy, the thrills and the fright. There was not a dull minute from start to the grand finale. The costumes consisted of old clothes, the older the better. The prizes were won by Mrs. Kurt Stoeckel and Mr. Oswald Taege. Mrs. Stoeckel's was a fine pumpkin, something for Thanksgiving day. Mr. Taege's would or will all go up in smoke, so "Why bring that up now?" A tour through the witches gallery was a rather shivery venture, where every shape or shadow made you jump. There were black cats, witches riding broom sticks and fearful mutterings until your flesh was turned to goose pimples and your hair stood on end.

So filled with terror were you, that when the surly ghost appeared before you in the passage, you were glad to be absent in person in that place.

Supper? And such a generous appetizing satisfying supper, you forgot ghosts and witches ever gave you a fright. The menu consisted of roast beef and pumpkin pie, and all the dishes that complete such a well served sumptuous dinner.

There had been a guessing contest when there was exhibited a huge pot of peas and the question was how many peas in the pot. Many guessed into thousands. Mr. Koehnke had worded this question adroitly, so there was a catch in it and the answer was only one "P" in "pot." All enjoyed the trick of the "catch" more than if they had won the guess.

One of the well established rules of the social affairs given by the Lutheran Laymen's league, is that they shall not be held later than 11 o'clock. A splendid rule. This gave time for the clean up committee, with their skillful helpmates, soon cleared the hall of the debris of the frolic, and had the supper dishes neatly in place. It was a happy harmless frolic, and we congratulate those "Laymen" and all who helped to make this frolic such a fine success.

Woman's Club Notes

First of all put a dot here: Nov. 3, a white elephant and rummage sale in the village hall, all day Saturday. The list of articles to be put on sale must be in the hands of the committee in charge at the hall no later than Friday.

Wednesday, November 7, program—Readings, Mrs. George A. Harriman, literature and drama, tea.

Three members of the local club chorus are to sing in the 7th district, taking part in the autumn festival November 9, at North Park college. The three members adding their voices to the music for this autumn festival are Mrs. Koehnke, Mrs. Mitzeloff and Mrs. Ashton.

"Crazy Politics" Closed Tuesday Night a Laugh The Same As It Opened

The master stage show "Crazy Politics" which played for three nights at St. James school hall was the sensation of the year so far as shows are concerned. This community production has created a feeling of good will as nothing else could have done. It gave everyone a laugh and was said by many, to be the best amateur production ever staged in Arlington Heights.

The cast deserves credit. Each and every member of the cast was perfect in his or her part. The remark was made by a man from Chicago that he saw a better show Sunday night when he saw "Crazy Politics" than he saw in one of the down town theatres in Chicago, Saturday night.

Abie Goldberg, played by Les Griffith, was high comedy for the show. The lead, Pat O'Donnell was played by Jimmy Bown. Mr. Bown was a sensation throughout the show and lived up to his reputation as being the best actor in Arlington Heights. Mr. Raoul Peeters is saying that he enjoyed being in this show more than he has enjoyed seeing any other show in his life. Mr. Peeters deserves credit because he is a busy man and this is his first show. From the way Mr. Peeters handled his role in this show you would not have known it was his first. Judge Kopplin lived up to his well established reputation as an actor. Marvin Rodewald made a name for himself, and Art Lauterburg was a scream. What show would be perfect without this popular gentleman in the cast?

Buddy McKaig was wonderful in the role of the little daughter, Minnie. Even though Buddy is getting married next week, he found time to learn his lines perfectly. Miss Higginbottom, played by Mrs. Tousaint, got a laugh every time she made an appearance in the stage. Mrs. Saar was the most perfect Mrs. Goldberg anyone could ever want to see. Mrs. Weisarsky was the perfect Mrs. Watson. Miss Fredericks, as Sally and Miss Rubner as Julia, could not be surpassed. The cops, Bill Luehring and John Firnbach played their parts to perfection as well as Mr. Band, Mr. Goerger and Mr. Pecchia as the tough gangsters. Ivan, played by Mr. Parker says he gets his name Awfulitch from the whiskers he wore. Mr. Palmer created much laughter in his proposal to Mr. Bown. Charles O'Hagan was right on the job looking for news.

Charles Paddock in his funny get-up made a hit with the audience. Burgess, Mr. Sachs as Jenkins got a lot of good laughs. The Syncopated Rally with the Singing Politicians, Modernistic Misses and Sophisticated Kiddies, was one of the high spots of the show. The chorus girls were not at all amateurish in their dances. The costumes were beautiful and colorful.

One of the enjoyable features of the show, were the two vocal selections given by Mrs. Brynoldson. Mrs. Brynoldson is from the choir of St. Vidor's, Chicago, and to this autumn festival are Mrs. Koehnke, Mrs. Mitzeloff and Mrs. Ashton.

worth the admission. This community is looking forward to another production such as this one, and when you get a Universal Production you get just the kind of shows you want to see.

ARLINGTON HTS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whiting and daughter, Lois Ann, from Trenton, Iowa, attended the World's Fair and visited with relatives and friends this week.

Arlington Grade Pupils Note Americanism Day With Special Programs

Today pupils in the Arlington Heights grade schools are observing "Americanism Day" with special programs in each room. At the request of Otto F. Aken, county superintendent of schools, the meanings of patriotism and Americanism are being stressed today.

This will be the first time that the students of the Arlington Heights schools will recite the new salute to the flag, prepared by Mr. Aken. The new salute says,

A BETRAYAL

(Editorial from The Chicago Daily Tribune March 6, 1933)

The county board has voted its 1933 budget. The reduction of expenditures from last year's total is less than one per cent. The amount appropriated is grossly in excess of any reasonable expectation of income. The board has approved the fiction that 88 per cent of the 1931 taxes, now going into collection, will be paid. In the year which has elapsed since the 1930 bills became payable the collections have amounted to about 55 per cent of the total. The county board thinks that the people of Chicago have more money in 1933 than they had in 1932. That must constitute some kind of a record in plain and fancy thinking.

The county budget is a budget which all but guarantees defaults and nonpayment of employees and bills. It is a budget calculated to do a maximum of damage to the county's credit. It is a budget which marks a breach of trust on the part of the members of the county board who voted for it toward their employees and more especially toward the public which elected them.

The board voted 10 to 5 for the budget. The men and women who refused to be a party to the betrayal deserve honorable mention. They are: Commissioners William Busse, Grace Fleming, George A. Miller, Amelia Sears and John E. Traeger.

"I love my country, the United States of America, the land of freedom and right, and I salute our flag of red, white, and blue, which stands for courage, purity, and loyalty."

Also included in the programs today will be patriotic songs and stories, E. D. Whitmore, Arlington Heights school superintendent, has announced.

A. H. B. CLUB MEETS THURS.

There will be a regular meeting of the Arlington Heights Benefit club on Thursday night, Nov. 1, at 7:30 p. m., at Sadecky hall.

It is desired that all members attend this meeting if possible and please remind other members to be present also as no other notice is sent. Membership cards and other matters will be considered.

Raised in a political environment, Arthur J. Bidwill learned from his father the fundamentals of good public service and should be a capable and efficient senator.

MAC SAYS

—By—
Gerald A. McElroy

We are rather proud of our selection of football winners last week as we had 12 right, 0 wrong and one tie. Our record to date is 36 right, 8 wrong, and 2 tie for a percentage of .818. This week we find the toughest job of the season in picking the winners. The hardest to pick are Purdue at Chicago, Army at Illinois, Wisconsin at Northwestern, and Notre Dame at Pittsburgh.

Here are the selections for this week:
Pittsburgh 14, Notre Dame 6.
Chicago 14, Purdue 13.
Illinois 14, Army 7.
Wisconsin 28, Northwestern 6.
Minnesota 28, Michigan 7.
Iowa 12, Indiana 7.
Ohio 27, Western Reserve 0.
Iowa State 14, Kansas 0.
Mich. State 20, Marquette 0.
Kansas State 26, Washburn 0.
Missouri 6, Oklahoma 7.

Second Place at Stake

The big battle for second honors in the Northwest conference will be staged at Libertyville today with Warren disputing the Wildcats' claim to that ranking. Odd isn't it for Libertyville to be competing for second place. The Wildcats go into the battle with an even chance of losing. We would not be surprised to see the game end in a tie. It shapes up that way on comparative scores. Warren and Libertyville both beat Barrington by a score of 18 to 0. Both were beaten by a margin of two touchdowns in the first five minutes of play.

Arlington Moves On

The title-bound Arlington eleven rolled on toward the championship by moving down Palatine 32 to 0 last Saturday and travels to Leyden today bent upon removing another obstacle from their path. Leyden has an offense which open field running of the same variety as the Cardinals, but does not have a line which can compare with the Arlington forward line. Leyden is liable to score, but Arlington should win by two touchdowns. If Arlington wins they have the title clinched with but Barrington left to defeat for a perfect record. Arlington can lose one game and capture the trophy, but we don't look for any such radical upset.

Tough Break, Albie

Little Albie Brodman, slated for a backfield job on the Arlington grid machine this year, has been prevented from playing because of illness. Albie, a three sport star, has thus been deprived of playing on a conference championship team in his last year in high school. Ray Engkeling at Palatine is another athlete who loses a season of conference competition in football due to injuries.

Five different Arlington backfield men scored against Palatine Saturday. Szasz, Rohlwing, Meierhoff, Hertel and Johnson each crossed the Pirate goal.

Antioch Player Moves

Hackett, a six foot regular on Antioch's cage team last season, will play with Leyden this year. His father has a position in the Leyden school. Most of Watson's best cage prospects at Franklin Park do not play football and have been sharpening their shooting eyes the past three weeks. Kosack and Kadon and two more veterans standing over 6 feet in height. Leyden appears to be heading for a fine season on the hardwood this year.

By GERALD A. McELROY

Arlington practically clinched the conference grid championship by defeating a fighting Palatine eleven 32 to 0 last Saturday on the Cardinal field. A strong chilly northwest wind made playing conditions bad, but failed to hinder the powerful Cardinal running attack which put over two touchdowns in the first five minutes of play.

Winning the toss and taking the wind advantage, the Cardinals clinched the game in the first quarter. Long runs enabled Szasz and Rohlwing to cross the Pirate goal in the early minutes of play. Meierhoff scored the third touchdown in the second period on a 66 yard run through the right side of the Pirate line. The score at the half was 20 to 0.

Arlington put on a sustained march of 60 yards for their fourth score in the third quarter with Hertel going over for the score. Late in the last quarter when both Grose and Meierhoff had second team players in the lineup, Arlington scored for the fifth time. Deare recovered a Pirate fumble. Michaels ran 20 yards and Johnson scored the touchdown.

Palatine did not go down to defeat without putting up a battle, but they were up against the best Cardinal team Grose has ever coached. The Pirates boast one of the best forward passing attacks in the conference, but the strong side wind forced them to resort to running plays which the powerful Cardinal line smothered on nearly every occasion. To pick stars would be a difficult task. The whole Arlington line stood out due to exceptional fine blocking. Schinkosky at fullback did most of Palatine's ground gaining. Szasz and Rohlwing as usual ran wild for the Cardinals.

The game statistics are sufficient to indicate the marked superiority of the Arlington team.

Only Four Games Left On Conference Grid Card

CARDS PLAYING LEYDEN TODAY BRONCOS NEXT

Libertyville Host to Warren In Contest for Second Position

Four games remain on the Northwest Conference grid schedule for 1934 and a week from tomorrow the season will be closed. It seems but a matter of going through the form of announcing Arlington as the winner. Two of the four games involve the Championship-bound Cards who play at Leyden today and entertain Barrington in the grand finale next week. Libertyville plays host to Warren today in a battle for second honors. Next week Leyden improves their standing at the expense of the hapless Bensenville outfit.

Today's game at Leyden is an important one from the standpoint of both teams. To win means an undisputed championship for Arlington who could lose next week to the Broncos and still retain first place. No doubt Coach Grose aims to clinch the title today if possible, and the team will be showing their best stuff against the Eagles.

Last season Leyden had the same record as this year in their first four games with victories over Palatine and Barrington to open the season and then set-backs at the hands of Libertyville and Warren. Last year Arlington swamped the Eagles and prevented them from getting better than an even break for the season.

Could Take Third

A win for Coach Watson's crew would assure them of at least third place with a .667 rating. Leyden comes the nearest of any team to having the same style of offense as Arlington. Both rely upon fast backs who can score from any distance with a minimum of blocking ahead of them. Grose has Szasz and Rohlwing, while Watson depends upon Sewoski, Williams and Arquia to get away for long runs.

If backfields were all there were to it, Leyden would have a fair chance to win, but the line is more important in the final analysis. Arlington will have a big weight advantage over the Leyden line and is just as fast. It looks like the Arlington line is a couple of touchdowns the best with such outstanding men as Capt. Gieseke, Helwig, Masny, Scaloro, Harrah and Redeker. This lineup does not have a single weak spot, and Phillip and a younger Masny can be substituted without weakening the setup.

Up at Libertyville a couple of heavy lines will battle to see who wins second conference honors. Libertyville undoubtedly has an edge in the line due to greater weight and more experience, but Warren has by far the better backfield.

Zimmerman Star Back

Zimmerman, one of the best all round backs and team leaders in the history of the conference, is a big reason for the rise of the green Warren team. Phillips, Dixon and Brya round out a fine quartet of backs which has an edge over such men as Fenwick, Harlan and Kroll of the Wildcats.

Games Today

Arlington at Leyden.
Warren at Libertyville.

The November safety poster distributed by the Chicago Motor club to 36,000 school rooms portrays the proper way to walk on a highway—facing oncoming traffic. "A car traveling 60 miles an hour overtakes a person in its path at the rate of 88 feet a second," says the club. "To get out of its way requires quick action. The pedestrian can't do this if he doesn't see the approaching car."

The history of the conference, is a big reason for the rise of the green Warren team. Phillips, Dixon and Brya round out a fine quartet of backs which has an edge over such men as Fenwick, Harlan and Kroll of the Wildcats.

Libertyville has three of the outstanding linemen of the conference in Capt. Kroll, Isaacson and Madden. Kroll, who has been forced to play in the backfield on offense due to injuries to teammates, is a great tackle. If this trio can stop Zimmerman it will be the Wildcats' game. No one has kept the Warren flash from scoring except Arlington, and he gained plenty of yardage at that despite the fact that the Cardinal ends are about the class of the conference.

LIBERTYVILLE DOWNS BRONCOS AT BARRINGTON

Wildcat Power Plays Gain 15 First Downs in 18-0 Victory

On the first cold week-end of the season and with a stiff wind blowing from the chilly northwest, Libertyville's Wildcats pushed over Barrington's Broncos to a 18-0 victory on the Barrington field Saturday. Completing 15 first downs to 2 for the home boys, Libertyville made their gains by line smashing and power plays.

Tritz pushed over the line for a touchdown in the first period. Harlan scored in the second quarter. Libertyville's one completed pass came in the last quarter when Harlan passed 20 yards to Jaeger for the third score. Barrington completed two passes.

Kroll, Wildcat right half, was outstanding with many gains on line smashes. The visitors completely outweighted the Barrington team, and came back with a surge of power after losing to Arlington the previous week.

BENSENVILLE HOLDS WARREN TO TWO SCORES

Zimmerman Runs 30 Yards; Strahan Recovers Punt For 14-0 Victory

After being held scoreless for two quarters, Warren came through with two touchdowns in the final half to defeat Bensenville 14 to 0 at Gurnee last Friday. One score came on a 30-yard run by Zimmerman, and the other as the result of a blocked punt recovered by Strahan behind the Bensenville goal line.

Bensenville put up a stubborn defense. Warren had 10 first downs to four for the visitors. Bensenville had a perfect passing record with four completions in as many attempts. Warren passed four times but two were incomplete and the other two intercepted. Zimmerman, captain of the Warren team, was the star of the game as he accounted for most of the yardage collected by the Blue Devils. Warren's most successful plays were end runs with Zimmerman carrying the ball.

MRS. VAN DER VRIES ATTRACTS VOTERS

Speaking at scores of meetings in the 7th Senatorial District, Bernice T. Van der Vries, Republican nominee for the Legislature is winning enthusiastic support of men and women alike with her aggressive personality, earnest purpose and sound views.

Having served for the last four years as member of the Village Council of Winnetka, she is thoroughly aware of the problems of the towns and villages in this district, and she is utterly and uncompromisingly opposed to the attempt to consolidate these towns with metropolitan Chicago.

In her speeches Mrs. Van der Vries also says, "I am in favor of a general reduction in tax totals which have reached such a stage that our entire government is in danger of collapse."

This total can be reduced in three ways. First, by elimination of unnecessary duplications, extravagance and waste. Second, by refusing to reappropriate money for unnecessary purposes which originated in the days of easy money; and third, by having the Legislature refuse to pass bills establishing new bureaus, commissions or causing additional taxes unless absolutely necessary in this period of emergency.

Mrs. Van der Vries is so able and aggressive, and so experienced in working with others to accomplish her purposes that voters are certain that she will prove to be one of the most effective representatives ever sent to the Legislature from this district. By her interest in better schools and more efficient government, she will work for objectives which the whole district earnestly desires. Men who have worked with her for years are so enthusiastic over her candidacy that they are actively campaigning in her behalf. In the primary, her own community voted for her 12 to one over many other candidates.

Election of Arthur J. Bidwill Nov. 6th Is Deemed a Certainty

The election of Arthur J. Bidwill of River Forest, Republican candidate for Senator from the Seventh Senatorial District on November 6th is deemed a certainty by political forecasters.

Mr. Bidwill's popularity has spread rapidly throughout the district, due in no small measure to the fact that he understands the problems of the homeowners and has pledged himself to give them honest, fearless representation at Springfield, and not to be influenced by money interests seeking special privileges.

A young man well educated and with a background of successful achievement in the business world, Mr. Bidwill is considered ideal senatorial material. Energetic, honest and possessed of the courage of his own convictions he will be a true leader and a champion of the people's rights.

Endorsements of his candidacy have come from all sides, including the following: Legislative Voters League, Chicago Medical Society, Illinois Medical Society, Illinois Manufacturers' Association, The Better Government Association, Roosevelt Country Town Democratic Organization also several posts of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mr. Bidwill has declared himself for Home Rule, and preservation of the individuality of the country towns, also for repeal of the present registration laws on the country towns. Having a complete knowledge of legislative functions he is fit and capable of serving the people of the Seventh District in the State Senate at Springfield.

Mr. Bidwill is married and resides at 1403 Bonnie Brae, River Forest with his wife and three children. He is a university graduate now engaged in the printing and stationery business in Chicago.

1935 Auto License Blanks Distributed

Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes has started distribution of registration forms for 1935 automobile licenses in Illinois.

First shipments of the application blanks were made to the city and county clerks, police, sheriffs, newspapers and various motor clubs throughout the state from which points they will be distributed to car owners. By special arrangement with oil companies, the license forms will also be distributed from thousands of filling stations and garages in cities and along the various state highways.

The law requires car owners to display the 1935 license plates on January 1. Secretary Hughes stated. Plates will be released thru the mails and placed on sale "over the counter" on or about December 6. Heretofore license plates have not been issued until after Christmas.

Car owners desiring reassignment of their 1934 numbers must make request and file their application thirty days prior to January 1. Secretary Hughes pointed out. Owners re-registering the same car must send their 1934 registration card along with the application for 1935 plates.

Those registering new cars will be required to furnish the secretary of state's office with a bill of sale for the automobile department's official records. They must also apply for a certificate of title. Applicants for plates for newly acquired used cars must furnish evidence of ownership in the form of a properly endorsed certificate of title.

Motorists whose cars are now registered in Illinois are not required to make application for a new certificate of title unless ownership of the car has been transferred and not recorded during the year. Incidentally since the title law went into effect the first of this year, Secretary Hughes declared that car thefts had been reduced more than 50 per cent.

Machinery for turning out the new license plates, registration cards, and certificates of title is ready to do the big job at top speed, according to Mr. Hughes. The numerals of the new plate are navy blue on a battleship grey background.

Baumrucker's Record Of Achievement

A record of achievement is advanced by the supporters of Chas. F. Baumrucker, Democratic candidate for state senator, for the seventh senatorial district.

Mr. Baumrucker's accomplishments in the business world have won for him unusual recognition. He has demonstrated what a capable business man can do for a community by taking on added responsibilities as a civic-minded public official. He was drafted by his neighbors in 1930 and elected president of the village of River Forest, where he is now serving his second term. In his first term, he effected a reduction in expenses for River Forest of over $129,000. He also brought about a reduction in the assessed valuation of real estate of over $2,500,000.

Mr. Baumrucker has always furnished each resident with a financial statement, showing the exact financial position of the village at the end of the fiscal year. During his administration all village employees have been paid on time, in cash.

Mr. Baumrucker proposed and sponsored the "Civil Service Act" and through his efforts the proposition was put on the ballot and overwhelmingly approved by the voters.

River Forest is the first village of Cook county to install a two way radio system for its police department. Mr. Baumrucker was one of the organizers, and since its inception a member of the executive board of the Suburban Area and Country Town's association of Cook county, composed of municipalities, school boards, park boards, mosquito abatement districts, chambers of commerce, Kiwanis clubs, and other civic organizations. Organized to protect the right of all municipalities to govern themselves and opposing all consolidation with Chicago.

For the past three years Mr. Baumrucker has promoted the plan to build a great intercepting sewer from the north end of Cook county to the drainage canal, and thus end the dumping of sewage into the Des Plaines river. He has opposed all suggestion of special assessment for this work as it is strictly a sanitary project.

Such a record is natural to a man whose business activities have carried him to high positions of trust, to which he was elected by his competitors. Mr. Baumrucker is now serving his second term as president of the National Association of Credit Jewelers, and his eighth term as president of the Chicago Credit Jewelers association. He is chairman of the Retail Jewelers code authority. He is a member of the Cook County farm bureau, and an associate life member of the Field Museum of Natural History.

Mr. Baumrucker is endorsed by the Legislative Voters League, Illinois Manufacturers' association and Suburban Area and Country Towns association.

THINK IT OVER TAXPAYERS

Can the taxpayers of Cook County afford to lose the services of the man who ordered a 15% cut in assessed values of all homes, two and three flat buildings?

Who led the fight for reduced 1932 taxes?
Who inaugurated and now leads the fight for 1 1/2% tax limitation for all property on fair cash value?
Who recently secured in County Court, tax reduction for all property owners because of illegal rates?

Who as a member of the Board of Appeals, reorganized the office, and in two years granted individual hearings to more than 200,000 taxpayers, five times as many as heard by any previous board?

Who has now pledged to cut budgets by eliminating waste and extravagance?

Who has pledged unconditionally to the maintenance and development of every essential function of the County government, our schools, the proper care of the poor and sick, our law enforcing agencies, our health service, and our recreational facilities?

Club Urges Co-operation of Employers For Federal-State Employment Service

Confidence in the broad purpose and ultimate objectives of the Federal Government in re-organizing and exercising control of the Illinois State Employment Service, under the Wagner-Peyser Bill, is indicated by action of the Arlington Heights Benefit club, a club of unemployed of that section.

As a result of the club's personal contacts with both Federal and State directors of the service, and observation of the impartial, sincere and diligent manner in which the Des Plaines branch office in charge of Mr. Wade, has attacked the problem of both securing positions through direct solicitation of employers, as well as in placing applicants from civic and other representative organizations, urging employer's support of the service, will do much toward furthering a most effective cause.

It is the opinion of the club, that only a unified and well administered national service program for reemployment in the various states, such as governs the Illinois State Employment service through Federal control and management, can solve the problem of absorbing in an orderly manner, the tremendous army of unemployed or in dependent livelihood, as business and general conditions are improved and overcome.

Accordingly, the Arlington Heights Benefit club has undertaken to lend its support in promoting the service, as a civic duty, and has further taken the initiative in addressing a number of the larger employers of help in the Northwest section of the County, urging their co-operation in listing employment requirements with the service.

The letter in full follows:
Dear Sir—We assume your mutual interest in the present prob-

ABOUT POULTRY

By A. A. Paltz

Housing the Pullets
Lock up the pullets in the range shelter or range house the night before. The next morning start selecting the pullets as early as possible. Handle them carefully to avoid frightening them as there is plenty of evidence to show that rough handling causes broken egg yolks. Such pullets may die one or two weeks after injury.

Do not house poor pullets or birds with colds. Select those which are mature and in good physical condition.

Treatment for Lice
Vaseline and blue ointment mixed half and half by your drug store is the best treatment for lice. Apply a piece the size of a pea, rubbing it into the fluff feathers just below the vent. This treatment should keep the pullets free from lice all winter.

Black Leaf 40 painted on the roosts about 1/2 hour before roosting time may be used to kill lice, if the birds are not individually handled.

Litter
Use a thin layer of litter and clean frequently.

Room
It is better to house a smaller flock of selected pullets and allow them plenty of room than it is to house an entire flock, good and bad alike in a house that will be crowded.

In a small house allow 4 to 5 feet per bird. For instance, a colony house 10 feet by 12 feet will care for about 25 pullets. If more are housed, colds may break out and egg production decrease. In a large house, allow 3 1/2 to 4 feet of floor space per bird. Allow not less than 8 inches of roost space per bird.

Fall Colds
A watery discharge from the nostrils or eyes—heavy breathing or a rattle in the throat are symptoms of a fall cold. If allowed to continue colds may develop into roup.

For treatment spray the birds at night with oil of camphor, lysol and kerosene. Repeat each night until the colds leave. Use B-K in the drinking water, 2 tablespoonsful to 3 gallons.

A homemade substitute for B-K may be made of 1 lb. of chloride of lime, 1/2 lb. of salt and 1 gal. of hot water. Let this settle and use clear liquid in drinking water, same proportion as B-K.

Stop drafts in house and provide better ventilation.

Worms
If pullets were raised on clean ground, do not worm them unless you know they are worms. A homemade treatment for young worms consists of feeding 2 1/2 oz. of mash for 30 days. If "cascarol" capsules are used, clean house and dropping boards thoroughly and early in the morning.

ing after treatment to prevent re-infestation.

For tape worms use 1 teaspoonful of lye with 2 quarts of wheat and oats mixed. Cover with water and boil for one hour. Omit night and morning feed and give above mixture at noon. Then give Pullets epsom salts in a wet mash, 1 lb. to each 100 birds.

Clean out the house and dropping boards early the next morning.

Note: Mr. Paltz is a poultryman of long experience, and will be glad to answer your questions about poultry. Address all correspondence direct to A. A. Paltz, Sunny Croft Hatchery, Palatine, Ill.

THE FARMERS' PROBLEMS

VALUE OF LIMING PROVED THIS YEAR

Illinois farmers who had reasonably good stands of alfalfa and sweet clover this summer, while non-leguminous hay and pasture crops were withered by the drouth, reaped the benefits of 33 years of experiments in this state dealing with the value of limestone in crop production. It is revealed in a recent bulletin published by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Alfalfa and sweet clover, because of their deep-rooting characteristics will grow well in spite of prolonged dry weather, provided the soil is not in an acid condition. But in many fields the acidity of the soil must be neutralized by limestone before a good stand of legumes can be grown. Thus many farmers who have followed the liming tests conducted by the U. of I. College of Agriculture had hay and pasture this summer regardless of the drouth.

All soils do not require the same amount of limestone to neutralize the acidity, nor will all soils react in the same degree. Thus before money is spent for limestone, farmers should test their soils and compare them with the experimental results on like soils described in the new publication. Copies of Bulletin 405, "Response of Illinois Soils to Limestone," may be obtained from county farm advisers or by writing direct to the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, Urbana.

PREDICT DEMOCRATIC VICTORY TUESDAY

Always Ready to Fight for Home Rule
Says La Grange Citizen

Among the candidates on the democratic tickets deserving of support is Homer J. Byrd of Arlington Heights. He was assistant superintendent of schools for eight years and is now chairman of the county board's committee on roads and bridges. He has made a fine record and has been ready to take off his coat and fight for home rule for the suburbs and no one has worked harder to extend the time township collectors may receive taxes which results in speeding up a distribution to the various taxing bodies. His work with the Suburban Area and Country Towns association has been most helpful and he should be returned to the county board.

Palatine Precinct One Democratic Organization Is Strictly Regular

The First Precinct Regular Democratic organization of Palatine township, which has been known to the residents of the district as the George W. Meyer Booster Club issued an official statement this week notifying the public that all political organizations that might be interested that George W. Meyer and that organization are for a straight Democratic ticket. They will work only for the candidates, whose names appear in the Democratic column upon the ballot to be voted next Tuesday. They have neither been approached upon or consented to be any coalition ticket.

Winnetka Superintendent Praises Puffer's Qualities for School Superintendency

What Carleton Washburne, Supt. of Winnetka public schools thinks about the qualifications of Noble J. Puffer for the position of county superintendent of schools is shown by the following telegram that was sent by him to the Democratic headquarters at the time when Mr. Puffer was considered by the party organization for that position. The text of the telegram read:

"We in Winnetka, in common with all communities, which care about their schools, desire that the county superintendent be able, vigorous and progressive and have professional training and experience. We believe Puffer has these qualities and earnestly petition you to give him Democratic nomination. Carleton Washburne, Supt. Winnetka Public Schools."

Re-Election of Brummel on Bd. of Appeals Means Continued Lower Taxes

With scores of endorsements from various civic groups, independent groups of home and property owners and many other organizations, the candidacy of Fred W. Brummel, Democratic candidate for the Board of Appeals has taken the limelight in the coming election.

Since his appointment to the Board of Appeals two and one half years ago, Mr. Brummel has made a record that has brought him much commendation, not only from voters, but also from the taxpayer.

When he took over the work of the Board, he immediately and personally investigated the existing conditions and after a thorough study of the situation, he ordered the 15 per cent reduction on the 1931 taxes.

This was the first "break" that the taxpayer had received in many years and the action of Fred W. Brummel was heartily endorsed by hundreds of thousands of people in Cook county.

"I am for lower taxes wherever possible," said Mr. Brummel today in a statement, "and it will be my sincere work, when I am re-elected to the Board of Appeals, to continue to fight in that direction."

"It is my contention that with lower taxes, there will be a tree of homes and apartments. High taxes means that the man who desires to have his own home is afraid to build. The prospective home owner is frightened by the terrible bugaboo of high taxes. With such a building era started, it will mean putting people to work and thus we will make a great advance in our economic recovery."

"Lower taxes will inspire confidence among the people and the chaotic conditions that have been existing will be wiped out. I have saved the taxpayers money and I want them to return me to the Board of Appeals, where I can continue the work in their behalf."

Good Government Association Says of Noble J. Puffer:

The democratic candidate of county superintendent of schools (Noble J. Puffer) is qualified in character, education and ability.

To The Voters

This page is contributed in the interest of the Democratic candidates by a group of their friends for the purpose of informing the voters of the personal qualifications of those candidates in which the country towns are naturally interested.

EMMETT McGRATH HAS BEEN FAITHFUL IN PUBLIC SERVICE

Democratic Member of Legislature Seeks Election as County Commissioner

Emmett McGrath, 4127 Madison avenue, Brookfield, Ill., was born in Chicago in 1880 and educated in the public schools of that city. He served as deputy bailiff of the Municipal Court and in the State's Attorney's office of Cook county for five years. Subsequently he was associated with the Bennett-McGrath Petroleum company in an official capacity.

Mr. McGrath is completing his third term as a member of the Legislature from the Seventh Senatorial district and is now a candidate for Commissioner of the County Board on the regular Democratic ticket at the election to be held on Tuesday, November 6.

During his three terms in the Legislature, Mr. McGrath has introduced and sponsored a number of important bills beneficial to the country towns of the county and has a 100 per cent record for attendance. He co-operated with school officials of the various districts in their efforts to solve their financial problems, principal of which has been to pay the teachers for services rendered.

Mr. McGrath promises, if elected, to increase efficiency of county employees in order to get the best service to the largest number of citizens at the least cost, believing that the only way that taxes can be reduced is by annually cutting down the cost of government. He will see that the Forest Preserves are patrolled for the protection of citizens and children.

The past performances of Mr. McGrath are sufficient to convince one that he will continue to exert every effort to bring about legislation beneficial to the country towns, for which he has been an outstanding representative and worker. Vote for Emmett McGrath and Go Forward With Roosevelt and Recovery on Tuesday, November 6.—Adv.

John S. Clark for Tax Relief and Re- funds to Tax Payers

With the vital 1934 election just a few days away, voters by the thousands, and civic organizations in every part of the county have joined in active support of John S. Clark, candidate for the important office of Assessor of Cook county.

This ardent support accorded Mr. Clark is based on recognition of the fact that the office of Assessor is an important one, affecting the pocketbook of every taxpayer as well as the welfare of each of the 419 different governments within the county limits.

A man of integrity, trained in business, and with a complete knowledge of the taxing problems of the office is needed for this position, they have decided.

In Mr. Clark these qualifications are more than met. His supporters know of his fine record over many years in the City Council.

In November, 1933, he urged a 15 per cent tax cut on homes, and introduced a resolution in the Council to that effect. In April of this year he proposed legislation, which later was approved by the Council, giving this reduction to home owners who had already paid their taxes and who might otherwise have missed the benefit of the cut.

It is because of his past record in the interests of taxpayers, and his program to further benefit them, that taxpayers throughout the city and county are disregarding party lines in giving their support to Alderman Clark.

Judge O'Connell Reports Earnings In Probate Court

An increase of 80 per cent in the number of deceased persons' estates closed, and of 33 per cent in fees collected by the probate court of Cook county for the first nine months of 1934 as compared with the same period of 1933 is shown in the report submitted last week by John F. O'Connell, probate judge to Emmett Whealan, president, and the members of the board of county commissioners.

Judge O'Connell's report points out that the probate court requires no direct levy on the taxpayer for its maintenance, but actually meets all its expenses from the fees collected and in addition turns over a large annual surplus to the county.

Following are the figures for the year 1934:

|----------------------------------|--------------|
| Estates probated | 6847 |
| Increase | 537 |
| Deceased persons' estates closed | 4022 |
| Increase | 1781 |
| Fees collected | $182,930.11 |
| Increase | 44,400.25 |

From these figures it will be seen that although the number of estates probated increased less than 9 per cent in the first three-quarters of 1934, there was an increase of almost nine times that figure in the number of estates of deceased persons closed during the same period.

It is estimated that a total of more than $8,500,000 has been distributed to legatees, heirs and creditors as a result of these closings to date this year.

The fifth man to be elected judge of Cook county's probate court since its creation in 1877, Judge O'Connell is a candidate for reelection to that office and the direction of the largest court in the world presided over by one judge. He was elected probate judge, to fill the Horner vacancy, in 1933, when he defeated his opponent by 365,420 votes.

Party Chieftains See Nothing But Success in State, County and Suburban Towns

Confident of winning by overwhelming majorities, Democratic state, county and municipal candidates for election November 6 were in the "home stretch" this week, moving easily toward the finish line of the campaign.

In behalf of the ticket, Democratic big guns were arrayed to carry the fight to the opposition at a series of mass-meetings throughout the county, at loop noon-day gatherings, and over the radio.

U. S. Senators James Hamilton Lewis and William H. Dieterich, Governor Horner, Mayor Kelly, State's Attorney Courtney, Chairman Patrick A. Nash and other party leaders were on the stump and at the microphone. Their appeal was directed to voters of both parties and independents. They urged the electorate to "go forward with Roosevelt, not backward to Hoover" and to register their confidence in the state and local administrations, which have compiled an unparalleled record of tax reduction and governmental efficiency. Several speakers were delegated by Chairman Nash to talk for the $30,000,000 bond issue for unemployment relief and the constitutional convention proposition.

Chairman Nash predicted a landslide victory for the entire ticket next Tuesday. He said: "The Democratic candidates will win by majorities comparable to those rolled up in the Roosevelt landslide of two years ago. The result of the election will be a new rebuke to the character assassins of the opposition, who do not represent the honest Republican voters of Cook county. We have conducted a clean, straight from the shoulder campaign. We have stuck to the issues. We have not been diverted by smoke-screens sent up by the desperate despotic job-seekers who have attacked Chicago's good name."

"The Republican leaders have made one mistake after another, and you don't win elections by making blunders. They started out to attack the President and the people hissed them into silence. They started out to 'stick to the Constitution' and have proven their insincerity by avoiding any reference to this no-existent 'issue' for the past ten days. They 'staked all' on a muckraking conglomeration of warmed over charges, and the people have demonstrated."

"Similar conditions exist in the country districts," says Horace M. McCullem, district leader. "Straw votes indicate that the Democratic vote will be as large as two years ago and that the country towns will increase the extent of the great Democratic victory. I look for the election of every Democratic candidate in the country towns."

Johnson Favors Limitation of Tax Assessments Says Country Side

"Mr. Johnson is a graduate of the agricultural college of the University of Minnesota. He has expressed himself with a good deal of emphasis that it is his thought that real estate, meaning farm land and homes, is bearing more than its fair share of the taxes and that he favors the 1% of the fair cash value limitation. He further declares himself as against the diversion of funds from the use of the gas tax for other purpose. He believes the gas tax should be used to finance a long term program of highway improvements such as was the original intent of the act. Certainly that coincides with the general thought of our farmer group."

Union Labor Club Endorses N. J. Puffer

Chicago, Oct. 31, 1934
Noble J. Puffer, Palatine, Ill.
Your indorsement was announced by Union Labor Club for County Superintendent of Schools. I am instructed to invite you to be our guest at luncheon in Grand ballroom Saturday.

John F. Cullerton

ELECT NOBLE J. PUFFER County Supt. of Schools of Cook County

Endorsed by his leading educators of Cook County, qualified by eight years experience in the office he seeks possessing the faith of the people with whom he has worked, Noble J. Puffer is worthy of the full support of all who have the best interests of the schools at heart.

A school man of twelve years experience, awarded his M. A. degree by Northwestern University in the field of Supervision and Administration, he brings to the office of County Superintendent a splendid background of training and preparation for the great responsibility of being the educational leader of Cook County.

Known for his willingness to be of service at all times and his desire to assist in all worthy community enterprises, Mr. Puffer's candidacy offers to the people of Northwestern Cook County, his home area, an opportunity to elect one of their own neighbors who will continue his service both in the schools and in community work.

A father, a taxpayer and a teacher, a combination which guarantees the proper interest in your children, their school needs and the proper administration of school finances.

Mr. Puffer is member of the N. E. A., the Lake Shore Division of the State Teachers Association, President of the Palatine Lions Club, and a member of the Finance Group raising funds for Boy Scout activities. At one time he served as Scoutmaster.

With his broad interest, his sincerity, his dependability and his progressive spirit, his many friends feel that he is unusually fitted for the office of County Superintendent of Cook County Schools.

ELECT YOUR NEIGHBOR, NOBLE J. PUFFER

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

What is the news? Many adieux from friends from here and there who came to spend time to attend our wonderful world's fair.

Right here at home some babies come to swell our population. And by and large, piles up a charge for a towering water station. If news we show you want to know just light a bright home taper. And while you rest just read the best.

News, in your own home paper.

Hallowe'en tricks and frolic finish out our Golden October days.

Don't forget the rummage sale Saturday, November 3. No witches in it. Only "white elephants." I'll see you.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zinkel are the parents of a daughter, born on Thursday, October 25 in St. Francis hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of North Dunton avenue are proud parents of a daughter born Monday October 29th.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mayer on the arrival almost on the same date of their two little grand daughters presented to them by their daughters, Agnes and Isabel. No dull days for them this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McWharther have gone to Kentucky this week to pay a short visit to his mother, brothers and sisters. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Blume are staying in the home with the children during their absence.

Make your plans to do your Christmas shopping at the old fashioned corner country store November 16th. It will all be right there!

Dr. and Mrs. Savage of Palatine are to take up their residence soon in the J. Y. Beatty apartment house on East Euclid.

Mrs. H. C. Cleveland spent the last week-end with her son, Prof. Wm. Cleveland and family at Bloomington, Ind.

Mr. John Frohlich is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Raoul Peeters and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scherf and their son, Jimmie, were Thursday dinner guests of Mrs. Scherf's aunt, Mrs. Eischen at Lake Bluff. Mrs. Eischen is leaving for California Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Young have shipped their household belongings to Cleveland, Ohio, where they will make their future home. This change is because Mr. Young's company are establishing headquarters there. Many in Arlington Heights regret their going, and in club, church and social circles they will be sincerely missed.

Mr. Robert Palmer, new resident in West Miller street is now at home after a few days spent in Chicago.

Mrs. Wm. Waide is here from the East this week visiting her relatives in the Fairchild family. Mr. and Mrs. Waide formerly. Allie Fairchild family has many old friends here who would be glad to see her.

Mrs. Frank Cizek enjoyed a pleasant surprise Sunday when a group of relatives and old friends came from Chicago to give her proof they had not forgotten her. It was a happy day for Mrs. Cizek and her family, as well as their guests.

Several cousins of Mrs. L. L. Loyd came from Aurora Sunday to be her guests. One of these cousins gave her double surprise by bringing his newly married wife with him, when Mrs. Loyd had not known he was married.

Miss Sue Park from Chatauqua who is taking a training course in nursing in Chicago was a last week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rexford Volz.

Doris and Ruth Carpenter who have been several years with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nichols, are now with other relatives in California.

Mrs. George Gaare gave a pleasant pre-natal shower on Miss Helen Kolling, in her home on So. Dunton avenue, Monday evening this week. It was a genial group of Miss Kolling's friends, who cheerily greeted her in Mrs. Gaare's home, showering pretty and useful gifts on her, just the gifts any new housekeeper will be happy to receive.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scherf will be Sunday dinner guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Albrecht in Chicago.

The O. M. Johnson family received word recently from their son, Carl, from whom they had not heard for some time. His part of the naval fleet had gone on to China and it was from China his message came to his home folks. And to them China seems a long way off.

Mr. Edward Orum, Miss Henriette De Hass and Miss Pearl Van came from city Monday evening to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Peeters, and to enjoy with them the play "Crazy Politics." Miss De Hass is a student of dramatic art and Miss Van is adept in classic dancing. This gave to them a keen interest in dramatic art.

Mr. L. G. Helm left for his California home Monday, October 29. He was not driven away by our frosty weather but more on account of his vote. His visit here was saddened by the death of his eldest son, and his trips to and from Nebraska were tests of his strength yet he certainly came through all with a vigor unusual to one of his years.

Mrs. W. A. Franke of North Dunton avenue spent last week with her relatives in Chicago.

Don't Miss Aunt Jemima's pancakes fresh off the griddle, at the corner "Country Store" November 16th.

Mrs. Hal Young was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Jahns during the transfer of their lares and penates from their home here to their new home, Cleveland, Ohio.

Don't miss the rummage sale, all day Saturday in village hall.

To a masquerade you are invited, so wear your old clothes, not your new. The acting committee of Infant Welfare are sponsoring a dance for Saturday, November 17, at the North West Hills Country Club. Masquerade, or quaint costumes will receive beautiful prizes. A grand march at midnight. The judges will be twelve prominent business men of Arlington Heights.

Floor show and door prizes. Tickets 50 cents. Any person wanting extra tickets call 763-M.

BRITISH BAZAAR TO BE HELD SOON

This Bazaar is held each year for the benefit of the British Old People's Home at Hollywood, Ill. The clubs represented are Sons & Daughters of St. George, British Empire Association, British-American Women's Club, Dickens Fellowship Club & British & Colonial Veterans.

Merle Guild Post 208
American Legion News

Thanks to the good work done by our retiring commander Mike Browne in the Legion year of 1934 in whipping the post's finances into excellent shape, our incoming officer's are able to give more time to the running of meetings and making them useful and enjoyable. Our last meeting was a corker—more than 35 comrades were present. And what do you think happened? A miracle in Legion meetings, remember Vic is his letter about the meeting said it would start at 8:15 sharp, well he lived up to his word and the meeting actually started at 8:17 and who in the world will call a man careless with the truth for two minutes? The meeting adjourned at 9:35 p. m. It was a short but very interesting meeting.

Homer Bowlin is our first new member for the year 1935. Man can't play ping pong, no matter with whom he was teamed, even including our adjutant, he was able to beat all doubles. We are glad to welcome you in the Post Homer, and know that you will enjoy yourself at the meetings and prove a most valuable member. In civic life Homer is a sales executive for a firm manufacturing dental equipment.

Ever notice how Les Griffith can wiggle a cigarette in his mouth while talking, man he is an artist at it and one becomes goggle eyed watching him.

It seems that our Chaplain got into a little fracas at Mount Prospect's installation—it came about this way—his chair up and told him "listen big boy I am getting tired holding you" and with that it collapsed and George came tumbling down, but unlike Humpty Dumpty he gathered himself together again and sat down on a new and much stronger chair.

Thanks Mien fraan Jules Spah. In bringing out your accordion and teaming up with Paddy-rue-ski at the piano, we all had a fine time clog dancing, or should I say jigging to the tunes of the "lost chord. Ah, I have sighed to rest me from little Joe Klock's jug," and at this time I mustn't forget to say that thanks to Mrs. Schwo-low we had plenty of very good sandwiches. Yeah, Joe brought around some of his merchandise, too.

If any of that money you have collected on dance tickets is burning a hole in your pocket book, George Jorgensen is a very good fireman, he will save you all the trouble, etc., and only be too glad to keep it for you. No foolin' George could use some of that jack to pay some of the few pressing expenses incurred in putting on this dance.

It's a long time before we have another meeting and before we do don't forget that the auxiliary is running a party at which only the post members are guests, to be held the night of the election, November 6, at 6:15. Be sure to be there, it will start out with a meal that's all I know, once I heard that a meal was to be served I cancelled all engagements and here's hoping that you do too. You will have a good time and we'll be planning on seeing you there.

Very important—don't forget the date of our dance—Saturday, November 10, 9:00 p. m. Place—Arlington Country Club, located on Dundee road and Elmhurst road. Make it a point to be there with a lot of your friends. You will have a good time. The dance committee will be looking for you then, don't disappoint them.

VOICE OF PEOPLE

Arlington Heights, Ill.
Oct. 31, 1934

Dear Sirs:
What a few signs could be placed on the sidewalk reading "Parking only one hour," in front of the business places on Campbell street and corner of Dunton and Campbell. People that come to our town and even our own town people, for 30 minutes or less cannot find a parking place, most times in front of these business houses, because most of the cars there, are parked there in the morning and stay there all day, even as long as 9 hours. Why cannot these cars be parked on the side streets instead of their own business place. Or do they pay for parking space? No body in our neighboring towns has such privileges and can say "Trade in your home town if you can find a place to park, else leave your car at home," or should we ask "Can we park our car for 15 minutes please."

Yours truly,

Hallowe'en with all its fun and excitement is over. Jean and Bobby Blackburn entertained ten little friends last week Wednesday, at a masquerade party, and what cunning gnomes and witches the little ones were.

Harry Knaack, Jr., had several little boys over Monday afternoon for a Hallowe'en party.

The various rooms at school celebrated with the children coming in costume. Room mothers and others helping with refreshments.

It's not just the children who celebrate Hallowe'en, the farm bureau personnel caught the spirit and gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Tascher, Saturday evening, in Blue Island.

Mrs. C. H. Mills is visiting relatives in Rensselaer, Indiana, this week.

Miss Florence Hauer spent the week-end with Miss Marjorie Sayers.

Mrs. Louis Pederson, So. State road, entertained a group of relatives and friends Sunday for the pleasure of her mother, Mrs. Zeller, who was celebrating her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Monroe and son, Jackie, visited Sunday, in Woodstock with the Rev. and Mrs. Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Martins of Watson, Ill., are visiting at the Calvin Mitchell home this week.

Sunday guests at Paul Williams were A. O. Williams, Mr. and Mrs.

Countryman, and Mr. and Mrs. Blomberg and children, all of Rockford.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Compton and the Misses Harriett and Grace Barrett, came up from Champaign for Saturday night and Sunday.

Arlington Heights Man
Attends National Legion
Convention at Miami

Mr. John G. Sujack returned from Miami, Florida, last Sunday night, where he attended the National convention of the American Legion.

As a member of the Commonwealth Edison Drum & Bugle Corps No. 118, Mr. Sujack participated not only in the big parade but also in the Drum and Bugle Corps contest in which the Commonwealth Edison Corps won second prize money. More than 40 drum and bugle corps were in this competition and a very keen contest was experienced.

En route to the convention city a stop over was made at Chattanooga, Tennessee, including an auto tour of historic Missionary Ridge, Chickamauga battlefields ending at Fort Oglethorpe, where the 6th U. S. Cavalry were hosts for luncheon after which a mounted drill was staged.

Another stop-over was made at Lake Wales, Florida, and a short auto tour made to the famous Bok Singing Tower and citrus groves.

In Miami Mr. Sujack made the acquaintance of a Mr. Jos. Klein of Coral Gables, Florida, formerly of Chicago, who spent an entire day driving Mr. Sujack around Miami, Miami Beach, Coral Gables, affording a visit to the very pretty Hialeah race track as well as the famous Biltmore hotel and the Pan American Airways airport.

On the return trip a motor sightseeing trip was made of St. Petersburg to the Gulf beaches and along the Beach highways overlooking the Gulf of Mexico via Treasure Island, to Clearwater and Tarpon Springs, visiting the largest sponge market in the western hemisphere, which is conducted by a Greek colony.

At New Orleans a 6-hour stopover was made and the Legionnaires were guests of the Jefferson county organization of the Legion, who provided a sightseeing tour of the city, which included a visit to the old French quarters of the city and was very interesting.

Needless to say Mr. Sujack and family expect to spend a winter vacation at Miami next year.

As bright as any in her class
But her marks were always low!A FEW OF THE LAMPS
NOW ON DISPLAY
Designed for Better Seeing

Which is YOUR lamp?

Lamp 1. Bulbs are too low, sides of shade too sloping. Result—glare, deep shadows, eyestrain. Lamp 2. Bulbs at right height, shade of correct design. Result—restful light, precious eyesight protected. FREE at your Public Service Store, "Lighting Tape Measure" to test your lamps. Get it today.

THERE wasn't a pupil in the whole grade any brighter than Betty. But she hated to do homework. And her marks were always low. Betty's father said, "She's just lazy." But her mother was wiser. She visited her nearest Public Service Store and got from them a marvelous little device called "The Lighting Tape Measure." When she measured Betty's study lamp with this she found it only gave her from 1/4 to 1/2 as much light as she needed. A simple change of bulbs made all the difference in the world. And now Betty studies without a bit of coaxing.

What correct lighting is Experts estimate that in two out of three homes, some member of the family suffers from the wrong kind of lighting. To protect eyes you should have from 20 to 30 foot-candles of light falling on the printed page. It should be properly diffused with no glare, no deep shadows, no contrasts to cause eyes to change focus frequently. Under such lighting eye tension is relieved. Your body relaxes. Your nerves relax, too.

Most women would be only too glad to protect the eyesight of their children. But they have no way of measuring the kind of light their lamps give. And so, night after night, eyes struggle on with danger of permanent injury.

How to get it In the last few years some wonderful discoveries have been made about proper lighting. Lighting engineers have found that just by changing the position of shades, by raising or lowering the height of bulbs, and by designing a special kind of "light reflecting" shade, these handicaps to eyesight are completely overcome. Your Public Service Store has a variety of these properly designed lamps for sale. Come down and see them and at the same time learn, from our better lighting display, simple and easy ways in which you can improve the lighting in your home. And get, free, a marvelous little device called "The Lighting Tape Measure" which enables you to tell quickly whether or not each lamp in your home is providing 1/4 light.

EMMET WHEALEN CANDIDATE FOR APPEAL BOARD

Emmett Whealan, President of the Board of County Commissioners, and candidate for Member of the Board of Tax Appeals, has been a member of the board of county commissioners sixteen years, the last four being President of the board.

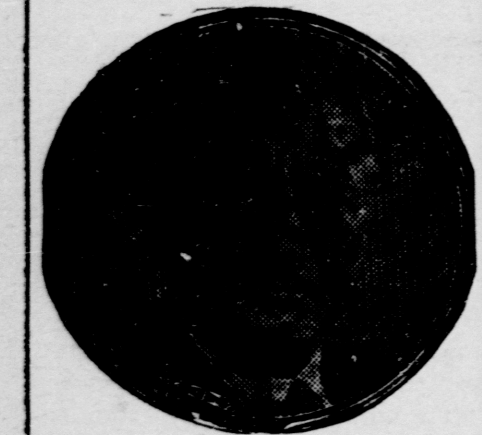

This experience qualifies him for the position of member of the board of tax appeals for which he now is a candidate, friends assert. The thorough knowledge he gained give him a back ground and no other candidate for board of tax appeals possesses. Besides this, his record as president of the county board shows he met a demand to cut county expenses 50 per cent, saving $25,000,000, an achievement considered marvelous inasmuch as it was done during Cook county's most trying era. In addition to this saving, great improvements were made throughout the county. The county hospital saw its first exterior cleaning since it was erected. The county building saw its first interior cleaning since it was built. The 65 buildings comprising the Oak Forest Institutions were redecorated. The Juvenile Court and Detention home came in for their share of extensive improvements. Emergency Relief workers were given employment, union wages prevailing.

The Forest Preserve District was improved so extensively that today it is six years ahead of its original improvement program. These are achievements that cannot be contradicted. They stand as cold facts.

When President Whealan turns over his present office to his successor, he will do so with the records showing that all county employees are paid up to date, solely an accomplishment of his. The record will be a record of achievement. On this record and with his valuable experience plus the fact that his public life is clean, he bases his plea to voters to elect him to the board of tax appeals, where he will institute equity in taxation and good governmental management, resulting in a good investment for the taxpayers.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Probation After Death" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 28.
The Golden Text was, "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death" (1 Cor. 15:26).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist steadfast in the faith" (1 Peter 5:6-9).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "There is neither place nor opportunity in Science for error of any sort. Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them" (p. 232-233).

A Golden Anniversary

Fifty years ago, October 25th, Miss Alvina Westfall and Mr. John F. Pfingsten were joined in marriage in Chicago, this date. Mr. and Mrs. Pfingsten observed in their home in Arlington Heights with large number of friends and relatives so join in their happy date. There were one hundred guests afternoon and evening.

There were flowers and gifts in masses and beauty enough to bewilder any bride. The bride and groom of fifty years did not forget to be the very soul of hospitality. They conducted their guests to St. John's church dining hall where tables had been reserved for them, and a royal feast. A generous chicken dinner, a regular banquet with all the proper accompaniments. After supper they went to the Presbyterian hall where the Eastern Star assembled, received them with acclaim. Mrs. Pfingsten was escorted east and where high honors were shown to the golden wedding bride and groom.

Returning to their home with their guests, a happy feature of the wedding was the presence of Mrs. Pfingsten's two sisters, who were her bridesmaids fifty years ago. They were Mrs. Anna Clark and Mrs. Wm. Prang and her husband. Other out of town guests: Dr. George Miller, his son and daughter. Dr. Geo. Miller has been Mrs. Pfingsten's physician and family doctor for 42 years. Other guests were from Chicago, Beverly Hills, Flossmore, Crystal Lake, Edison Park and Mount Prospect.

Of their children, Miss Meta, their daughter at home, Mrs. Della Bloss of Chicago, George Pfingsten and family and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pfingsten of Arlington Heights. Their son, Arthur Pfingsten and family in Westport, Connecticut, were unable to come. They have 4 children, the youngest a pair of twin girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Pfingsten have been residents of Arlington Heights for ten years; all their lives before coming here had been spent in Chicago.

There are no gold spun adjectives given bright enough to express the joy and happiness that radiated over the host-hostesses, the bride and groom of fifty years, and their guests on this joyful occasion.

It is only to say it was as if fifty years of trust and cheer had been condensed into these happy hours and I'm sure Mr. and Mrs. Pfingsten will agree that no flowers, nor gold, nor gifts can equal the worth of time loyal friends. We join in congratulations and may all the years to come be peaceful happy years, ever proving "The best is yet to be."

Sunshine spread to early dawn Where golden leaves bedecked the lawn
Their golden wedding day Joyful greetings on the air, Friends and kinfolks, everywhere Came happy hails and gay, Much of gladness, some times tears,
Through the long trail of the years As time sped on its way, Yours today a crown of gold; When a few more years are told Precious gems will be your right; Gold crown decked with diamonds bright,
And friendship never bought or sold, Life's darkest hour to light.

Monday, this week, October 29th, Mrs. Pfingsten entertained her Pinocchio club, a group of eight in her home on South State Road, beside their games—you may be sure the Golden Wedding was lived over in all its happy phases and was another feature of their pleasant afternoon.

Arlington O. E. S.

club, was escorted and welcomed to the East by the acting worthy matron and the soloist. The initiation ceremonies were very beautifully done by the girls and we are very proud of our girls. After the initiation, remarks were heard from our guests in the east. After which chapter was closed in regular form and delicious refreshments were served by the committee.

Arimathea Shrine

Amid magnificent splendor, advance night at Arimathea Shrine was conducted with dignity and pomp, the sweet fragrance from the mass of beautiful flowers made the evening most perfect. Mrs. Agnes Hagenbrink, acting worthy high priestess was escorted to the East, with her arms laden with beautiful mums of yellow and white, and judging from the large attendance, Mrs. Hagenbrink has made a host of friends during her years in office, and we look forward to another banner year for this Shrine.

Rose M. Reid, supreme noble prophetess of Washington, Iowa, was guest of honor. She was presented with a beautiful bouquet of yellow mums.

The official family consisted of ten worthy high priestesses and 4 watchmen of shepherds.

There were 23 past worthy high priestesses and 18 watchmen of shepherds present, a good majority being from Arimathea Shrine. These officers have always done their best for the presiding officers and the welfare of the Shrine. Veta Olsen, deputy supreme W. H. P. of Cook county, and Kathryn Schmidt, our own instructress, were escorted to the East as honored guests. Other deputy supemes were Maude Abbey of southern Illinois and Indiana, Edna Dennis of Des Moines, Iowa.

Refreshments were served by members from Arlington Heights.

The candidates were Miss Helen Stamm, Mr. Walter Stamm, Mrs. Clara Weise, and Mr. Henry Weise. Members of Arimathea Shrine will sponsor a cabaret dance Nov. 14, 8 p. m., at the Des Plaines Masonic Temple, there will be an excellent entertainment under the supervision of Mr. Emery Wagner. This is the place to come if you are looking for a good time. Admission will be 15 cents. Will members having books, please return them in time for the drawing.

Stove Heat Users

BANISH MESS—END DRUDGERY!

Install a Gas-Fired

CIRCULATING HEATER

$59⁷⁵ $1 down—$1 a month

HERE'S good news for all you users of stove heat. No longer do you have to put up with dirt and muss. No longer do you have to shovel coal, sift ashes, worry about a fire. You, too, can enjoy the labor-saving convenience, the cleanliness of automatic gas heat.

For only $1 down and $1 per month we will install a gas-fired circulating heater, complete with thermostat, in your home. This heater is not a stove. It is a complete, self-contained heating system. It circulates moist, healthful, warm air —not only through the room in which it is installed, but through other rooms as well. Attractive in design, it will harmonize perfectly with the best home furnishings, no matter where it is installed.

Get rid of old inconveniences. Banish care and worry by installing one of these gas operated heaters. Enjoy an even, comfortable heat—a clean heat—in your home. Ask about the radically reduced rates that can make gas heat practical for your home.

Mail the coupon TODAY for full information on gas heat.

To cover interest and other costs, a somewhat higher price is charged for appliances sold on deferred payments.
